

Fine Wine, Patsy Cline AND JEFFERSON DESIGN

Itinerary

Day 1 – Patsy Cline & Skyline Drive

Step back in time and follow in the footsteps of country music legend Patsy Cline. Explore her hometown of Winchester and tour the lovingly preserved Patsy Cline Historic House – just as if you were welcomed by Patsy herself. Stroll through charming Old Town Winchester Pedestrian Mall for lunch and shopping before a scenic drive along the famous Skyline Drive en route to Charlottesville. Tonight, enjoy a hearty buffet dinner and warm Virginia hospitality as your wine country adventure begins.

Day 2 – Jefferson Design & Fine Wine

Today, immerse yourself in the brilliance of Thomas Jefferson – visionary, architect, and wine enthusiast. Visit Monticello, Jefferson's iconic mountaintop home, where classical beauty meets innovative design. Explore the gardens, interactive exhibits, and captivating galleries that bring his world to life. Relish a traditional colonial lunch at Historic Michie Tavern, then continue to Ash Lawn–Highland, home of President James Monroe, to experience early 19th-century plantation life. The day ends in true Jeffersonian spirit with a visit to a vineyard along the Monticello Wine Trail, the birthplace of American wine. Raise a glass to fine craftsmanship and unforgettable scenery before enjoying dinner on your own in historic Charlottesville.

Day 3 – The Rotunda, Montpelier & Bristow Manor

Begin with a photo stop at Jefferson's University of Virginia, where his elegant Rotunda symbolizes the harmony of architecture and education. Continue to James Madison's Montpelier, home of America's "Father of the Constitution," and uncover stories of statesmanship, ideals, and the people who shaped the nation. This evening, gather for a memorable Farewell Dinner at Bristow Manor, a stunning 19th-century estate surrounded by rolling Virginia countryside – a perfect setting to toast new friendships and lasting memories.

Day 4 – Farewell to Virginia

After breakfast, bid a fond farewell to the beauty, history, and hospitality of Virginia – its wines, music, and monuments will linger long after your return home.

Celebrate Virginia's harmony of history, melody, and taste!

From the soulful sounds of Patsy Cline to Jefferson's timeless architecture and the elegant wines of Monticello, experience Virginia's perfect blend of culture, charm, and craftsmanship on this unforgettable journey through the heart of the Commonwealth.
