

Party on the Prairie

OKLAHOMA

Itinerary

Day One – Tulsa Treasures & Party Under the Stars

Begin your Oklahoma adventure visiting the Philbrook Museum of Art, an Italian Renaissance-style mansion surrounded by lush gardens. After a lovely Luncheon & Guided Tour, enjoy live cowboy music, stargazing, & s'mores at the Bartlesville Indian Women's Club Style Show, your first Party on the Prairie!

Day Two – Cruising Route 66

Hit the Mother Road for a nostalgic journey along America's most iconic highway! From Tulsa's quirky Route 66 landmarks to the Will Rogers Memorial Museum, enjoy vintage charm, classic photo stops, and a lively Sock Hop Dinner Party with music and dancing to cap off your day.

Day Three – Songs & Wildlife on the Prairie

Celebrate Oklahoma's musical spirit at the Woody Guthrie Center before exploring the vast beauty of Woolaroc Museum and Wildlife Preserve. With art, history, and roaming bison all in one place, this scenic day captures the soul of the Sooner State.

Day Four – Architects, Oilmen & Osage Heritage

Step into architectural brilliance at Frank Lloyd Wright's Price Tower and explore the elegant Frank Phillips Home before a delicious lunch and shopping at The Pioneer Woman Mercantile. Discover the rich traditions of the Osage people, then settle into Ponca City for a hearty dinner.

Day Five – Pioneers, Oil Barons & Bricktown Beats

Uncover Oklahoma's colorful past at the Pioneer Woman Museum and the grand Marland Mansion, a testament to the state's oil boom days. Continue to Oklahoma City for a festive dinner in charming Bricktown.

Day Six – Oklahoma City Shines

Sip mimosas on a Narrated Canal Cruise through Bricktown, explore the epic First Americans Museum & visit landmarks honoring Oklahoma history and heritage. Tonight, don your boots for a Country Western Shindig and dinner inside the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum – truly a night to remember!

Day Seven – Stories of Strength & the Spirit of the West

Reflect at the Oklahoma City National Memorial, then dive into the state's fascinating past at the Oklahoma History Center. End your day with a Farewell Dinner at a legendary Stockyards City steakhouse surrounded by classic Western shops and culture.

Day Eight – Farewell to the Frontier

Visit the historic Governor's Mansion & the Harn Homestead, celebrating Oklahoma's pioneer roots and proud traditions. Bid farewell, carrying home memories of music, history, and prairie hospitality.

Kick up your heels and get ready for a celebration of Oklahoma's wide-open skies, rich heritage, and warm hospitality!

From Route 66 nostalgia to cowboy music under the stars, this "Party on the Prairie" is pure Americana at its finest.

Highlights

- Philbrook Museum of Art
- Bartlesville Indian Women's Club Show
- Will Rogers Memorial Museum
- Woodie Guthrie Center
- Woolaroc Museum and Wildlife Preserve
- Frank Phillips Home
- Osage Tribal Museum
- Standing Bear National Park
- The Pioneer Woman Museum
- Marland Grand Home Tour & Luncheon
- Canal Ride Tour of Historic Bricktown
- American Banjo Museum
- First Americans Museum
- Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum
- OKC National Memorial and Museum
- Oklahoma History Center
- Stockyards City
- Governor's Mansion

Inclusions

- 7 Nights' Accommodations
- 7 Breakfasts, 5 Lunches, 6 Dinners
- Admissions and Guide Services
- Taxes & Hotel Fees