Itinerary

Day 1 - George Washington & Old Town Alexandria

Step into the world of America's founding father at the iconic, George Washington's magnificent Mount Vernon Estate. Continue to Old Town Alexandria, where cobblestone streets and colonial charm abound. Visit landmarks like Christ Church and the Washington Masonic National Memorial before dining at the storied Gadsby's Tavern—once a lively gathering place for Washington, Jefferson, Madison, and other early American leaders.

Day 2 - The White House, Woodrow Wilson & Lincoln

Begin your presidential day at the White House Visitor Center, where fascinating exhibits and an interactive tour bring America's most famous residence to life. Visit the home of Woodrow Wilson, the only president to make Washington, DC his permanent home after leaving office. Enjoy time at the National Portrait Gallery's Hall of Presidents before touring Lincoln's Cottage, the peaceful retreat where Lincoln drafted the Emancipation Proclamation. After dinner, cap the day with an Illuminated Monument Tour, where Washington's memorials glow beautifully under the night sky, offering unforgettable views and awe inspiring photo opportunities.

Day 3 - Montpelier & Monticello

Travel to the Virginia countryside to discover the elegant homes of two of America's most influential presidents. Tour Montpelier, the beloved estate of James and Dolley Madison, and explore its engaging museum galleries. Then, enjoy a hearty colonial-style lunch at historic Michie Tavern before visiting Thomas Jefferson's iconic Monticello estate, a masterpiece of architecture and innovation. Round out the day with a photo stop at Jefferson's University of Virginia and dinner at a favorite local restaurant.

Day 4 - Presidential Monuments & Memorials

Conclude your journey through presidential history with a day of remembrance and reflection. Visit the Jefferson, Eisenhower, FDR, and Lincoln Memorials—each telling a powerful story of leadership and legacy. Then, at Arlington National Cemetery, witness the solemn Changing of the Guard and pay respects at the gravesite of John F. Kennedy. Take in the enduring symbols of sacrifice and service before departing for home, filled with new appreciation for the men who shaped our nation.

Trace the footsteps of America's leaders on a fascinating journey through Virginia and Washington, DC. Visit the stately homes of Washington, Jefferson, and Madison, explore the heart of the nation's capital, and stand before enduring legacies.

From charming colonial streets to grand memorials, this tour brings history to life at every stop.
