

Black History & Foodie Tour of Baltimore!

Itinerary

DAY 1 - Arrival in Baltimore & A Taste of the Chesapeake

Arrive in Baltimore and step into the powerful story of Maryland's African American heritage with a visit to the Reginald F. Lewis Museum, home to compelling exhibits that bring the past to life. This evening, dive into local flavor with a signature "Crabology" dining experience, where you'll learn the art and tradition behind cracking and enjoying Maryland's famous blue crabs. Settle into your hotel along the Inner Harbor and enjoy the energy of this vibrant waterfront city.

DAY 2 - Black History, Culture & Community

After breakfast, embark on a guided journey through Baltimore's rich African American history. Visit the National Great Blacks in Wax Museum for an immersive and emotional look at key figures and moments in history, then continue to the Frederick Douglass-Isaac Myers Maritime Park to explore the legacy of African American shipbuilders and entrepreneurs. Enjoy an authentic soul food lunch before visiting Orchard Street Church, one of the oldest standing African American churches in the nation. This evening is yours to explore the Inner Harbor, with its lively atmosphere, shops, and waterfront dining options.

DAY 3 - Harbor Views & Farewell Flavors

Enjoy breakfast before seeing Baltimore from a new perspective on a narrated sightseeing cruise through the Inner Harbor, offering scenic views and stories of this historic port city. Afterward, gather for a farewell lunch at a local favorite, sharing memories of a journey filled with culture, connection, and incredible cuisine before departing for home.

Savor the flavors and stories of Baltimore on this unforgettable Black Heritage & Foodie experience – where rich history, vibrant culture, and unforgettable cuisine come together along the Inner Harbor.
