

Itinerary

Day 1 – Pittsburgh's Gilded Age & Pop Art
Your star-studded adventure begins in Pittsburgh with a glimpse into Gilded Age elegance at the magnificent Clayton Mansion. Then, discover the colorful world of pop art legend Andy Warhol at his namesake museum. Cap off the day with a delicious dinner at the Grand Concourse, a beautifully restored historic train station.

Day 2 – The King of Hollywood & Lakeside Luxury
Travel to Ohio to explore the birthplace of legendary leading man Clark Gable, affectionately known as the "King of Hollywood." Step into the world of Gone with the Wind with lunch at the charming Tara – A Country Inn before continuing to beautiful Chautauqua Lake, New York. Settle into your lakeside resort and savor an elegant dinner at the historic Athenaeum Hotel.

Day 3 – We Love Lucy!
Get ready for a day filled with laughter and nostalgia! Explore Lucille Ball's hometown of Jamestown, visiting meaningful landmarks from her life. Cruise the scenic waters of Chautauqua Lake aboard the historic Chautauqua Belle before stepping into Ricky Ricardo's famous Tropicana Room for a themed lunch. Then, relive the magic of I Love Lucy at the Lucy Desi Museum, featuring authentic memorabilia and recreated television sets.

Day 4 – Comedy Legends & Hollywood Memories
Keep the laughter rolling at the National Comedy Center, an interactive celebration of comedy's greatest stars and moments. Then travel to Pennsylvania to explore the life and legacy of beloved actor Jimmy Stewart at his namesake museum. Tonight, enjoy a memorable Farewell Dinner featuring a special Jimmy Stewart impersonator bringing classic movie moments to life!

Day 5 – American Heroes & Scenic Byways
Conclude your journey with a moving visit to the Flight 93 National Memorial, honoring the courage of September 11's heroes. Discover the extraordinary story of survival at the Quecreek Mine Rescue Site before enjoying a scenic Guided Drive through Pennsylvania's picturesque countryside on a Historic Covered Bridges Tour. Depart for home with wonderful memories of Hollywood legends, laughter, and American history.
