

Navajo Nation

Itinerary

Day One – Welcome to Arizona

Arrive in sunny Phoenix and settle into the beautiful WeKoPa Resort & Casino. Relax and unwind as you prepare for your journey through the stunning landscapes and vibrant culture of the Navajo Nation.

Day Two – Petrified Forest & Navajo Dancers

After breakfast, explore the Crystal Forest Museum & Gifts before venturing into the fascinating Petrified Forest National Park – where ancient trees have turned to stone and time stands still. This evening, enjoy dinner followed by an enchanting performance by Traditional Navajo Dancers.

Day Three – Trading Posts & Canyon De Chelly

Step into history at the Hubbell Trading Post, a National Historic Site that has been serving the Navajo people since the 1870s. Then travel to Chinle for an unforgettable guided tour of Canyon De Chelly and the ancient Antelope House Ruins, where stories of the past echo off the red sandstone walls.

Day Four – Monument Valley Majesty

Journey to the legendary Monument Valley, one of the most photographed landscapes in the world. Visit Goulding's Museum & Trading Post before boarding a jeep tour that takes you deep into the valley's iconic buttes and mesas. Continue to Tuba City for a relaxing evening and overnight stay.

Day Five – Canyons & Culture

Today's adventures take you to Page, Arizona, where sunlight and sandstone create magic in the narrow passageways of Antelope Canyon. After hiking to the breathtaking Horseshoe Bend Overlook, enjoy a memorable evening of storytelling, song, and dance during the Red Heritage Cultural Experience Dinner Show.

Day Six – Navajo Heritage & Farewell Dinner

Begin the day at the Navajo Museum to learn more about the Nation's proud history and artistry. Then head to charming downtown Flagstaff for shopping, sightseeing, and a farewell dinner celebrating the spirit of the Southwest.

Day Seven – Homeward Bound

Enjoy breakfast at the hotel before departing for home, carrying with you unforgettable memories of the land, legends, and landscapes of the Navajo Nation.

Venture deep into the heart of the Navajo Nation, where red rock canyons, sacred lands, and ancient traditions come to life.

From Monument Valley to Antelope Canyon, experience the beauty, culture, and heritage of the American Southwest.
