

A REVOLUTIONARY Colonial Christmas

Itinerary

Day One: Washington's Holiday Wonders

Arrive in the nation's capital and kick off your adventure at the festive Downtown DC Christmas Market, filled with handmade gifts, sweet treats, and holiday cheer. Discover Revolutionary art at the National Portrait Gallery, view America's founding documents at the National Archives, and cap off the day with a dazzling visit to the National Christmas Tree and a cheerful holiday dinner before settling in at your Alexandria hotel.

Day Two: Founding Fathers & Holiday Traditions

After breakfast, step into the Revolutionary era with a visit to the art- & artifact-filled Anderson House. Pay tribute to Jefferson & Washington at their iconic memorials, then enjoy lunch at historic Gadsby's Tavern. Explore George Washington's church and Masonic Memorial, then wrap up the day with a festive dinner in Old Town Alexandria's charming historic district.

Day Three: From Mount Vernon to Christmas Town

This morning, visit the beloved estate of George Washington at Mount Vernon. After lunch, journey to Colonial Williamsburg, where holiday magic awaits at Busch Gardens Christmas Town. Explore glittering lights, seasonal shows, Santa's Workshop, and more in this immersive holiday experience.

Day Four: Colonial Williamsburg & Grand Illumination

Delve into America's colonial past with a guided tour of Williamsburg's Capitol and Governor's Palace. Enjoy time to shop or dine in Merchants Square before experiencing the Grand Illumination – a breathtaking celebration with fireworks, live music, and colonial festivities. Top it off with a traditional "Groaning Board" family-style dinner and lively entertainment.

Day Five: Jamestown & Yorktown Holiday Cheer

Celebrate the season in two of America's earliest settlements – Jamestown and Yorktown. View full-scale replicas of the original ships at Jamestown Settlement and enjoy free time to explore Yorktown's charming, decorated streets. A festive dinner at a Colonial Tavern completes this day steeped in history and holiday joy.

Day Six: Berkeley Plantation & Farewell

Visit the beautifully decorated Berkeley Plantation, home of two American presidents and the site of the first official Thanksgiving. Enjoy a cheerful farewell lunch before bidding a fond goodbye to this unforgettable Revolutionary holiday journey.

Celebrate the season where history meets holiday magic – explore Revolutionary landmarks from Washington, DC to Williamsburg, all aglow with festive lights, traditions, and yuletide cheer.

Highlights

- Downtown DC Christmas Markets
- Monuments & Memorials Guided Tour
- National Portrait Gallery
- National Christmas Tree
- Anderson House
- Old Town Alexandria Guided Tour
- George Washington's Mount Vernon Estate
- Busch Gardens' Christmas Town
- Colonial Williamsburg Tour
- Grand Illumination
- Jamestown Settlement
- Yorktown Guided Tour
- Berkeley Plantation

Inclusions

- 5 nights' hotel accommodations
- 5 Breakfasts, 2 Lunches, 4 Dinners
- Admissions and Guide Services as stated
- Taxes & Hotel Fees