

Food & Feasts of Colonial Virginia

Itinerary

Day One: Welcome to Colonial Virginia

Arrive in Williamsburg ready to indulge with a hearty colonial-style lunch, then step into 17th-century life at the Jamestown Settlement. After check-in, enjoy a festive Colonial Feast Welcome Dinner at one of Williamsburg's historic taverns for a true taste of early America.

Day Two: Founders, Flavors & Fermented Honey

After breakfast, visit historic Berkeley Plantation, birthplace of two American presidents, and savor Southern classics at a charming local tavern. Discover Revolutionary Williamsburg on a guided tour, then raise a glass at Silver Hand Meadery before capping off the day with award-winning local seafood.

Day Three: Yorktown to Richmond – The Revolution Unfolds

Explore historic Yorktown before heading to Richmond, where you'll visit the Jefferson-designed State Capitol and witness a reenactment of Patrick Henry's fiery call for liberty. Dine in a landmark restaurant once frequented by Washington and Jefferson themselves.

Day Four: Jefferson's Roots & Washington's Family

Tour Tuckahoe Plantation, Thomas Jefferson's boyhood home, before traveling to Fredericksburg to visit key Washington family sites including Ferry Farm and Kenmore. Enjoy a hearty colonial-style dinner in a historic tavern before continuing to Alexandria & checking in at your hotel for the night.

Day Five: From Old Town to Mount Vernon

Stroll through charming Old Town Alexandria and tour sites tied to George Washington's daily life. Then visit his beloved Mount Vernon estate, including the family tomb and historic distillery. Wrap up with a Farewell Dinner in a historic tavern dating back to the 1700s.

Day Six: A Capitol Farewell

After breakfast, tour George Washington's Masonic Temple for stunning views and rare artifacts, then explore the Anderson House, home to Revolutionary-era treasures. Enjoy a final lunch on your own at DC's vibrant new food hall, The Square, before departing for home.

Taste, tour, and travel through the cradle of America's independence on this immersive journey from Jamestown to Washington, DC – where colonial flavors, Revolutionary landmarks, and Founding Father history come to life at every turn.
