

Nostalgia ALONG THE BLUE RIDGE

Itinerary

Day 1 - Welcome to Walton's Mountain

Step back in time as you arrive in Schuyler, Virginia, home of the beloved TV classic The Waltons. Explore Walton's Mountain Museum and relive the simple joys of this heartwarming American story. Then, settle into The Virginian Lynchburg, where historic charm & modern luxury meet, and enjoy a delightful Welcome Dinner at a local favorite.

Day 2 - Remembering the Bedford Boys

After breakfast, capture a photo at Lynchburg's colorful "LOVE Works" sign before visiting the moving Bedford Boys Tribute Center. Continue to the National D-Day Memorial, honoring the courage and sacrifice of those who fought for freedom. Enjoy a delicious lunch at a restored historic site, then travel to Floyd for an overnight stay at The Hotel Floyd. This evening explore this artsy mountain town, where live bluegrass music fills the air at the famous Floyd Country Store.

Day 3 - Blue Ridge Music & Mountain Charm

Day 4 - Mayberry Memories & Dukes of Hazzard Fun

Wake up to the charm of Mount Airy and get into a "Mayberry State of Mind" as you explore the Andy Griffith Museum and Earle Theatre on a guided tour of this nostalgic town. Then, shift gears for an exciting trip to Cooter's in Luray — a must-see for Dukes of Hazzard fans, with Daisy's Diner, Cooter's Garage, and even the iconic General Lee! This evening, check into The George Washington, a Wyndham Grand Hotel in historic Winchester, and enjoy a festive Farewell Dinner with a special live musical tribute.
