

Itinerary

Day One: Jefferson & Monroe in Charlottesville

Arrive in Charlottesville and enjoy a hearty colonial-style lunch before touring Monticello, Thomas Jefferson's mountaintop home. Visit James Monroe's estate, Highland, and the iconic Rotunda at the University of Virginia. End your day with a warm Welcome Dinner at a favorite local restaurant before checking in to your comfortable accommodations.

Day Two: Madison's Montpelier & Colonial Alexandria

After breakfast, tour Montpelier, home of Constitution author James Madison. Continue to charming Old Town Alexandria to explore George Washington's local haunts, including Christ Church and Gadsby's Tavern – where dinner includes a visit from the iconic Mary Washington herself!

Day Three: Mount Vernon & Revolutionary Reminders

Begin the day with a visit to George Washington's beloved Mount Vernon and lay a wreath at his tomb. After lunch on-site, enjoy a fun tasting at Washington's Grist Mill Distillery before heading south to Fredericksburg for a delicious group dinner and hotel check-in.

Day Four: Fredericksburg's Founding Family Ties

Explore George Washington's boyhood home at Ferry Farm, the Mary Washington House, and the James Monroe Museum. Discover 18th-century life at the Rising Sun Tavern and visit Kenmore, home of Washington's sister. Enjoy a tasting at A. Smith Bowman Distillery before dinner and downtime.

Day Five: Liberty & Leadership in Richmond

Visit Jefferson's boyhood home, Tuckahoe Plantation, and tour the Virginia's State Capitol. Witness a dramatic reenactment of Patrick Henry's "Give Me Liberty or Give Me Death" speech before heading to Williamsburg for a colonial-style dinner and overnight stay.

Day Six: Williamsburg & Yorktown – Revolution Comes Alive

Tour Colonial Williamsburg and experience daily life on the brink of revolution. In the afternoon, dive into the iconic American Revolution Museum at Yorktown. Celebrate your journey with a special Farewell Dinner among new friends.

Day Seven: Journey to Jamestown

Explore America's earliest beginnings at the Jamestown Settlement, where immersive exhibits and outdoor recreations bring 1607 to life. Enjoy free time for lunch before departing for home, enriched by this unforgettable Revolutionary experience.

Trace the lives and legacies of America's Founding Fathers across Virginia's most historic landscapes – from Jefferson's Monticello to Washington's Mount Vernon, and from the stirring words of Patrick Henry to the battlegrounds of revolution.
