Detroit

Sample Itinerary

Day 1 - Welcome to Detroit's Charm

Arrive in style with a welcome lunch at the historic David Whitney House, a 19th-century architectural gem in Detroit. After savoring local flavors, stroll downtown for a guided walking tour through the city's entertainment and business districts, admiring the Guardian Building and The Spirit of Detroit. Continue to Detroit's oldest neighborhood, Corktown, for an exclusive tour and tasting at Two James Spirits, the first licensed distillery since Prohibition. Check into your hotel before enjoying a family-style Italian dinner at Corktown's beloved Ottawa Via, where the night is yours to explore the city at leisure.

Day 2 - Motown, Masterpieces, and a Sunset Dinner Cruise

Begin with a private guided tour of the Motown Museum, where Hitsville USA's iconic Studio A and timeless memorabilia await. Head next to the Detroit Institute of Art to view world-renowned pieces, including Diego Rivera's frescoes and Van Gogh's self-portrait. After lunch, delve into Detroit's history at the beautifully restored Michigan Central Station, once the world's largest train station. In the evening, unwind with a sunset dinner cruise aboard the Detroit Princess, savoring views of the city skyline as you dine.

Day 3 - Detroit's Innovations and Jazz

Step back into automotive history with a tour of the Ford Piquette Avenue Plant, birthplace of the Model T. Then, discover Greenfield Village, a vast outdoor history museum capturing the essence of American ingenuity, followed by an afternoon exploring the Henry Ford Museum of American Innovation, home to transformative artifacts. After a refresh at your hotel, enjoy an evening of music and dining at Aretha's Jazz Café, where live jazz and soulful vibes cap off your night.

Day 4 - A Grand Farewell

Enjoy a scenic morning drive through Grosse Pointe en route to the Ford House, the stunning lakeside estate of Edsel and Eleanor Ford. Wander the English-inspired mansion and gardens before visiting the Visitor's Center, where a farewell lunch awaits at The Continental. Take in serene views of Lake St. Clair as you toast to the end of your unforgettable Detroit journey.

Experience Detroit like never before on this four-day journey through its storied landmarks, cultural icons, and innovative history. From the elegant Whitney mansion and soulful Motown Museum to scenic waterfront dinners and the renowned Henry Ford Museum, each day brings you deeper into the heart of Motor City.
