NEW YEARS @ TOBY'S DINNER THEATRE

Itinerary

Day 1: Monday, December 29, 2025

Kick off your festive journey in Washington, D.C., at the United States Portrait Gallery, a living plant museum, & witness the vibrant Poinsettia Display. Next, visit the Hall of Presidents at the National Portrait Gallery. Depart on a scenic drive along Embassy Row to Hillwood Estate, lavishly decorated for the season. At dusk, take in the serene beauty of the Pathway of Peace on the Ellipse at the White House. End your day with a Welcome Dinner overlooking the Potomac River at one of Georgetown's popular restaurants, blending festive ambiance with exceptional cuisine. After dinner, continue on an Illuminated Monument Driving Tour to see the National Christmas Tree, the softly lit iconic DC memorials, and walk through the Kennedy Center to see the Nation's City from the terrace. Check in to your Maryland hotel for the night.

Day 2: Tuesday, December 30, 2025

Start your day with a hearty breakfast before exploring Baltimore's history at the B&O Railroad Museum's Holiday Festival of Trains, featuring festive model displays. Meet your Step-on Guide for a City Tour of Baltimore and see sights famous for its legendary inhabitants along with a visit to 34th Street in Hampden, famous in its own right for incredible festive Holiday Light Displays! After a delicious dinner at a local favorite, cap off the night with the Festival of Lights at the Washington, D.C. Temple.

Day 3: Wednesday, December 31, 2025

After breakfast, journey to Mount Vernon, the estate of George Washington, where the mansion and grounds are adorned with period-appropriate holiday decorations, offering a glimpse into 18th-century festivities. Costumed interpreters, historic demonstrations, and seasonal activities provide a rich, immersive experience. Midday, explore Old Town Alexandria, where cobblestone streets and historic architecture are enhanced by festive decorations, boutique shopping, and diverse dining options. Return to your hotel to prepare for an unforgettable New Year's Eve at Toby's Dinner Theatre in Columbia. Enjoy a delectable dinner followed by a performance of "Elf The Musical," a heartwarming tale that captures the joy of the season. As the show concludes, dance the night away with a live DJ, culminating in a champagne toast at midnight to welcome the New Year. A light breakfast buffet in the early hours ensures a satisfying end to the celebration.

Day 4: Thursday, January 1, 2026

Begin the New Year with a leisurely breakfast at the hotel prior to checking out and departing for home with a camera full of your holiday adventure.

Ring in 2026 in style! Experience the magic of the season with holiday markets, breathtaking light displays, and historic sightseeing in Washington, DC, and Baltimore. The highlight? A dazzling New Year's Eve celebration at Toby's Dinner Theatre featuring Elf The Musical, an exclusive party, dancing, and a champagne toast at midnight!

Wrap up your holiday getaway with a luxurious Grand New Year's Day Brunch overlooking Baltimore's Inner Harbor.
