

NEW ENGLAND Fall Foliage

Itinerary

Day 1 - Travel & Norman Rockwell Museum

Arrive in charming Stockbridge, Massachusetts, for a visit to the renowned Norman Rockwell Museum, featuring a guided tour of the artist's historic studio. Enjoy lunch at the museum before departing for Providence, Rhode Island, where you'll enjoy a delicious Welcome Dinner before settling in at your local Providence hotel to rest for the night.

Day 2 - Explore Providence & Cranberry Bog Adventure

Enjoy breakfast at the hotel each morning. Today, check-out and embark on a morning sightseeing tour of Providence, known as "America's Renaissance City," with highlights including historic landmarks and a visit to prestigious Brown University. Later, experience an unforgettable cranberry bog adventure – don chest waders and walk among the floating cranberries! Continue to Cape Cod's oldest town, Sandwich, for shopping & sightseeing before visiting the Sandwich Glass Museum. Check-in to your Cape Cod hotel where you'll enjoy an included dinner and a free evening to relax.

Day 3 - Martha's Vineyard Discovery

This morning, board a ferry to the beautiful island of Martha's Vineyard. Enjoy a guided tour through picturesque villages and stroll the charming streets of Oak Bluffs, with its famous gingerbread cottages and historic carousel. Spend free time exploring Edgartown's shops and cafés before returning back to the mainland for a delightful dinner at a local favorite and a relaxing evening.

Day 4 - Kennedy Legacy & Cape Cod Gardens

After checking out, start the day with a sightseeing tour of Hyannis Port, home to the Kennedy family, and a visit to the John F. Kennedy Hyannis Museum. After lunch in Hyannis, head to the stunning Heritage Museums & Gardens for a guided tour featuring botanical gardens, antique cars, and American art. Enjoy free time to explore the gardens before traveling to Newport, Rhode Island, where you'll check into your hotel after a delicious included dinner at a local favorite.

Day 5 - Historic Newport Mansions

Discover Newport's rich colonial history with a guided city tour, then explore the grandeur of The Elms, a magnificent Gilded Age mansion. Spend some time shopping and dining in the charming Brick Marketplace before touring the famous Breakers Mansion, an icon of America's turn-of-the-century elite. Enjoy another delicious dinner at Le Forge Restaurant located on the grounds of the International Tennis Hall of Fame and owned by the Crowley Family of Newport whose Irish heritage is reflected throughout.

Day 6 - Twain's Legacy & Farewell

After breakfast and check-out, depart for Hartford, Connecticut, to visit the Mark Twain House & Museum. Tour the beloved author's historic home and enjoy a special living history presentation. Cap off your adventure with an included catered lunch before saying farewell and beginning your journey home, filled with wonderful memories of your New England escape.

Experience the charm, history, and beauty of New England on this unforgettable journey through Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and Connecticut.

From iconic coastal towns and cranberry bog adventures to grand mansions, island escapes, and the legacies of American icons like the Kennedys, Norman Rockwell, and Mark Twain – this tour blends culture, scenery, and fun into one perfectly paced getaway.
