

Winter in Arizona

Itinerary

Day 1 – Welcome to the Valley of the Sun!

Arrive in Phoenix, AZ, and start your adventure with a warm Arizona welcome. Stop for lunch at Kierland Commons before departing to marvel at Frank Lloyd Wright-inspired architecture, explore historic landmarks, and stroll through Papago Park's dramatic desert landscapes. Cap off the day with a hearty cowboy-style dinner and toe-tapping tunes at Rustler's Rooste with panoramic city views.

Day 2 – Ghost Towns, Canyons, & Pizza with Pipes

Travel the scenic Apache Trail into the legendary Superstition Mountains, where tales of lost gold await. Step back in time at Goldfield Ghost Town and enjoy a scenic cruise through the stunning "Junior Grand Canyon" on Canyon Lake. End your day at Organ Stop Pizza, where delicious pies & the world's largest Wurlitzer organ playing live, creating a one-of-a-kind dining experience you'll never forget!

Day 3 – Music, Culture, & Native Traditions

Start your day at the world-class Musical Instrument Museum for a fun, interactive and musical global journey. Then explore the vibrant Western town of Cave Creek before immersing yourself in Native American history and art at the world-renowned Heard Museum. Tonight, enjoy dinner on your own and a relaxing evening in Phoenix.

Day 4 – Vintage Rails & Western Nights

Ride the rails on the legendary Verde Canyon Railroad through Arizona's wild backcountry, with red rock vistas, ancient ruins, and a touch of Old West magic. Later, saddle up for a chuckwagon feast and lively Western stage show at the Blazin' M Ranch before settling in for the night beneath the red rocks of Sedona.

Day 5 – Grand Canyon Grandeur & Musical Memories

Experience one of the world's natural wonders on a private hummer tour of the Grand Canyon's South Rim. Enjoy a scenic lunch on the edge of the canyon, explore historic Flagstaff, and end the day with steak, song, and Broadway-style fun at Black Bart's Steakhouse – a dining experience you won't forget!

Day 6 – Jeep Adventures, Hilltop History, & Artsy Towns

Hop aboard a Pink Jeep and ride into the heart of Sedona's stunning red rock formations. Explore the quirky hillside town of Jerome, indulge in boutique shopping and wine tasting in Cottonwood, and discover the rich artistic legacy of copper at a hidden gem museum before returning for a relaxing evening with dinner and drinks at the hotel.

Day 7 – Departure Day

Enjoy your final breakfast at the hotel prior to checking out. An optional hot-air balloon ride over the desert could be added prior to departing for home.

From vibrant desert cities to stunning natural wonders, this unforgettable 7-day Arizona adventure takes you through the Valley of the Sun, the mighty Grand Canyon, and the magical red rocks of Sedona.

Ride a vintage train through breathtaking canyons, explore Western ghost towns, marvel at Native American art, and dine in lively venues with music, scenery, and Western flair. Every day brings something new – this is Arizona done right!
