CHRISTMAS IN JIMMY STEWART'S HOMETOWN & SENECA FALLS

Day One ~ Bethlehem, Pennsylvania

Journey to the storybook town of Bethlehem, Pennsylvania – “Christmas City USA” – where you’ll enjoy lunch on your own amid twinkling lights and festive storefronts in the charming downtown Historic District. A Guided Tour brings the season to life with visits to the Moravian Museum, Single Sisters’ House, & the Kemerer Museum, home to the stunning Trees of Historic Bethlehem display. As twilight falls, journey northward through winter landscapes, pausing for a comforting Welcome Dinner before checking in to your local Seneca Falls hotel, your cozy home for the next two nights.

Celebrate the magic of It's a Wonderful Life this holiday season with a heartwarming Christmas journey through Bethlehem, Seneca Falls, and Jimmy Stewart’s hometown – filled with twinkling lights, festive cheer, and nostalgic charm!

Day Two ~ It's a Wonderful Life in Seneca Falls

Wake up to breakfast at the hotel and a warm dose of nostalgia as you step into a real-life Bedford Falls during the Anniversary Celebration of It's a Wonderful Life in Seneca Falls, NY. Discover the heartwarming story behind the beloved film at the It's a Wonderful Life Museum, take photos with lookalikes, enjoy cast member signings, and soak in the small-town charm that inspired Frank Capra’s masterpiece. Tonight, this magical day culminates with a Capra Preview Dinner at del Lago Resort & Casino, a festive evening hosted by Frank Capra’s granddaughter that recreates the glamour and joy of the 1946 film premiere.
