

Canyon Wonders & Navajo Heritage

Itinerary

Day 1: Welcome to the Southwest

Your adventure begins as you fly into Las Vegas and travel through the stunning desert landscapes of Arizona. Upon arrival in Page, settle into your hotel and meet your fellow travelers during a special Welcome Dinner, setting the stage for an unforgettable journey through Navajo Country and some of the most iconic scenery in the American West.

Day 2: Monument Valley & Navajo Traditions

Today you'll venture into the heart of the American Southwest as you travel to the legendary Monument Valley Tribal Park. Experience the region's breathtaking red rock formations during an exciting guided Jeep tour led by Navajo experts, enjoy a traditional Navajo Taco lunch amid spectacular desert scenery, and gain unique insight into Navajo history and culture. This evening, hear inspiring stories & perspectives from respected Navajo leader and Arizona State Representative Mae Peshlakai during a memorable dinner experience.

Day 3: Antelope Canyon, Horseshoe Bend & Cultural Celebration

Day 4: Farewell to the Southwest

After breakfast, take one last look at the spectacular desert landscapes that have defined your journey. Travel back to Las Vegas with memories of magnificent canyons, towering mesas, rich cultural encounters, and the timeless beauty of the American Southwest before your flight home.

Discover the timeless beauty and rich Navajo Heritage of the American Southwest!

Journey through the towering sandstone cliffs of Antelope Canyon, stand at the edge of Horseshoe Bend, explore the legendary landscapes of Monument Valley, and experience authentic Navajo culture, storytelling, music, and cuisine along the way.
